Jeffrey, I hone=tly wish there was something more I could do for you than just send you my=most loving thoughts and wishes...

You'=e made so many people's lives so much better, mine included. You'v= helped so many when they were in desperate need.

I remember Lesley telling me that [REDACTED] had told her that you had re=cued them from poverty and she was so grateful to you. Before you came alo=g, the question had not been what was for dinner, but if there was dinner =t all... I'm so sorry that people have such short memories and I'm=sorry the world doesn't know what a generous, empathetic and brilliant=man you are.

You are the highlight of my li=e.

Always with love,
