Very good,

Yesterday I had Jermaine helping with Logitech remote programing, trying to get master turn-on of all equip with one button,. He will contact logic support for help on Monday, and via online help.

I feel confident it is possible to program remote in this manner, ,.Today I'll work in hanger doing paper work, run engines on Boeing,  also installing a washer/drying in hanger for aircraft linens and clothing,

-- I'm out of clean clothes, when I take my pants off they are so dirty they actually walk away by themselves. (Sorry, trying my hand at creative writing).

Thx,
Larry
