Different q: With the art partnership you are putting together a structure that enables leon to make many decisions with respect to purchasing and selling art.

1. If we end up contributing "non-art" investments to the partnership can we also have leon make "investment" decisions on non-art investments/assets?

2. If we wanted to keep the art pshp focused on art only, cld we set up a similar partnership for non-art investments where leon was a designated and appropriate investment advisor?

Just some thgts?

Jeffrey-as you know I am trying clean up the records and administration of all the inter-entity notes. Historically, the notes have been either written with interest "compounded annually" or "paid annually". I would like to put all the notes on annual cash pay and clean up (retire) some of the smaller notes.

First, any problem in going to cash pay on interest. Seems prudent, correct? B
