Dear =effrey,

Given the time difference, and the =act I'm 100% booked by my hosts here in China, it may be =asier to talk when I'm back in the US. I arrive late =ednesday. So, perhaps Thursday afternoon, or Friday =ould work? I'm free almost all day on Friday as of =ow.

Kind regards,

Nathan

Dear Jeffrey,

Thank you very much for your email. I am in China, and in meetings all morning our time tomorrow.

Are you on the east coast of the US? If I know the time zone, we can work out a good time that works for you. I'm quite flexible in the afternoon tomorrow for example, but I believe that's getting very late for you. Otherwise, Sunday morning China time could of course catch you earlier in your day.

Hope we can find a time soon,

Kind regards,

Nathan
