Dear Friends & Neighbors,

For those =f you unfortunately still without power, we understand your frustration.</=trong> The city is working closely with FPL to get our community's power r=stored as quickly as possible so we can all return to normalcy

In Miami Bea=h, 90% of FPL's customers now have restored power. Each d=y, FPL is getting closer to having our entire city's power restored; howev=r, there are still thousands of customers that still need attention. =/span>Although, the city does not c=ntrol FPL and their operations, I will continue to use the full force of m= office to put pressure on FPL.

FPL continues to project that power will be almost fully rest=red by Sunday. However, there may still be some isolated outages that will=require additional work.

FPL has the following tips for customers still without =ower

1. If you electric service is through overhead lines, look at=your meter, the box that holds it and connected pipes and wires on t=e wall of your home or building. If the meter box, pipe or wires are bent =r broken, repairs may be needed before FPL can restore power. If it looks damaged, don't touch it. If you have any doubts, contact a licensed electrician. If the meter itself is damaged, FPL will take care of that.

2. If you have underground service, look at your meter, the box that holds it and the pipe going down into the ground. Again, if the meter box or pipe is bent or broken, repairs may be needed before FPL can restore power. If it looks damaged, don't touch it. If you have any doubts, contact a licensed electrician.

3. Please report your outage on FPL.com <http://r20.rs6.net/tn.jsp?f=001tgWcO68_BdwYk2h55Psvqi8=Ttgo4yCwXA-hSrrk_cgo9B-KRbEMyifBPMmDwYzB4y-IPjHhACOMAEIjrmcieVxg1dJzb5RtfZ=9ENuWL_R89St5Vz_1i2Dyl_Z6ETWHgxR92seW19yS3jE5wWBnPGszWNy5ilFc&c=gVY5ABJd=7SxAOsBH_CbCEltJlaom3JxyKEuyd9wTrZSyFBhQurtLg==&ch=rIALvPA_WWPcFxm_K=1dzVgcXNaZibHDK-7jDUAFxXo9f7Mm4sYT1g==>. If your ticket status is showing complete, but you are still without power, your issue may be more localized and require specialized attention.
