dear Jeffrey

before going in to what I =ave done I want to ask you what I'm supposed to be doing - I haven'=t looked for work for 13 years.

For example - =/b>2 of the companies I like most are very long shots but nothing to lose,=but don't respond to emails except with generic stuff which seems like=autoresponse.
They are ▓▓▓▓ and ▓▓▓▓▓▓ - both have physic=l offices in New York - do I just walk in there and give them my stuff. I =now my physical presence is stronger than what you can see about me over e=ail.
Or is this again not going to be getting to the correct peo=le.
(Honestly getting into ▓▓▓▓ was a long shot for me =s well, but now that I think back I kept going down there and going into t=e application office. Any paper that had to be emailed, I emailed but also=took them a physical copy. I think they were slightly fed up with me but t=ey definitely knew who I was and that I wanted to be there.)

So far I have been going onto the schools online job portal (so=to speak) so companies advertise jobs on there and every single student ca= apply. Not to mention these companies are probably doing the same procedu=e with Pratt and NYSID and other universities.

Sh=ll I keep you updated with all my job application movements next week??
