Happy 2017, =udi!

I just had a =onversation with a patron of The Institute for Music & Brain =cience who is interested in making a donation to UCLA (with overhead) =hat would provide salary for me to work on my book, tentatively titled =The Music Instinct. Mind, Brain & Culture". I have already signed =n with a top literary agent in NYC at ICM Talent (Kris Dahl).

Also, I received the =appy news that Professor White and the Neuroscience Program will fund =t least part of my Music Mind & Brain course this Spring Term. =hank you for planting the seed that made that possible!

Might you be available =o meet next Wednesday 2/8 or Thursday 2/9 to discuss the =bove?

Cheers,
Mark
