Mort, I write to you with a great deal of fondness affection and concern. I have know you for over 25 years.&=bsp; You can dismiss this letter out of hand , or take it as a true =ign of caring. You and I met with Terje on Sat&nbs=; at 430 pm. You might not remember. You asked that I help you . you might not =emember. Your friends including me are very concerned that your cogn=ative impairment has now reached a serious and potentially dangerous =evel There is serious concern for your financail , emotional physical and psychological safety.

I am aware that you have the best people working o= the problem however. I urge you in the strongest terms &=bsp; to voluntarily now put your affairs and your person into a guardiansh=p. conservatorship or a firm legal structure for your own protection= Terje your nephews and anyone else you trust , should be=given authority over your affairs. Your remarkable abilities . are n= longer enough to protect you. Your daughter and the people ar=und you love you and only wish for the good. I am aware that your condition makes you prone to suspicion but that being said , th= future predictable decline will be an ever increasing danger. =nbsp;

Admittting you have a problem will take courage and determinat=on. You and I sat at Sloan Kettering when Abigail was ill.&nbs=; I made a pact with you that I would always tell you if things had =one too far. well here we are. P=ease do your best to find protection. Jeff
