Subject: trip to NYC

Hi =effrey,

My =ime in NYC in May is getting crowded by meals and meetings with folks =t Columbia etc., but I would love to see your spectacular place. =nbsp;I arrive sometime on Sunday 14 May (from the middle of nowhere ♦=94 Penn State !), and am totally tied up on Monday and Tuesday. =nbsp;I'm meeting a friend who is flying into NYC from Paris on =ednesday night, and she and I are planning to return to Boston on =hursday or possibly later depending on evolving plans. Anything =ossible with that schedule?

Of course you're welcome to =ttend my lecture on Tuesday afternoon — I think it'll =e at the business school, but I'm not yet sure.

Best, Don
