Good Morning Melanie,

We were denied Charter Landing Permit for Germany. If the trip is operated as 91 then we don't need the charter landing permit, however we still need to apply for parking and slots which is on request.

Should we operate the entire trip as 91 or split the trip into two. Operate 91 for Europe trip and 135 for the domestic portion of the trip.

Please let me know.

Thank You,<=p>

Eli
