Jeffrey,

What if I told you that I would like to work for you longer, not only during summer?

Now when my two year 'prison' in Lithuania is almost over I'm trying to think of what I would really want to do next..

Future in Lithuania for me doesn't look bright, there are little performance opportunities and most of them pay ridiculous money.. teaching - I'm already teaching at [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. However, I don't see my future here.. therefore I start considering idea of going abroad and trying to build my life outside Lithuania and New York is one of those places where I would like to try to build my life.
