Yes ; both Subwoofers are Active, however O=yssey set up tends to lower thier output,. I'd rather try setting u="custom" and trying using AB amps from NY to get more power From the front speakers utilizing the Marantz receiver for preamp to= fully power those Wilson / B&W speakers,. The center channel is much more clear for Voice I think?

I'd like to tinker with it more tomorrow, if that's ok with you?
