Jeff: I'll be blunt. Warren =ay not make it to the end of the year, and if he does, his state =on't be good. If you are thinking of paying him a =osit it should be sooner rather than later. If you wait too long, =e won't be the Warren you remember. He's going =ownhill rapidly. I think a visit should just be to see him =or an hour or so, laugh a bit, talk about the past, etc . =nbsp;No need to stay for a few days, etc. There's no silver =ining to this. I'm supposed to be in Miami this Wed thru =onday. Let me know and I might be able to change things =round to come home early. This sucks on every level you can =agine. Be well. TK

Michael: If =m misstating anything re his condition, pipe in. TK =o:p>
