President Waheed=

I just wanted to drop you a quick note to update that Jeffrey (Waheed) =nd I spoke at length today about your campaign and about the latest develo=ments in the Maldives that you are dealing with right now.

=p class=MsoNormal>

Jeffrey brou=ht me up to speed on the most recent actions of former President Nasheed a=d his overt play of bringing India into this upcoming election. A number o= thoughts and political calculations come to mind in response to this move=by him, including how you can benefit the most from positioning yourself c=rrectly on this. I think it is a tremendously bad move on his part but you=and your people need to move to capitalize on it and frame it properly as =oon as you can.

We also discussed the campaign and the where we are to d=te. We reviewed some of the materials that I have previously sent to you a=d also some of the immediate action items for the campaign that need to be=addressed as quickly as we can. One of the items that Jeffrey and I agreed=upon was the need to start to develop a regularly scheduled set of meeting= (either via phone or Skype) in order to establish a consistent line of co=munication to review day to day issues facing the campaign and your presid=ncy.

Lastly, we also discussed my most recent emails and the latest deve=opments around your initial baseline survey / polling and what steps need =o happen in order to get you in the field as soon as possible. We should p=an to follow up as soon as you and Jeffrey have had a chance to close the =oop and get caught up on our phone call today.

Jeffrey (Waheed): Thank y=u, once again, for your phone call today. I found our discussions to be ve=y informative and helpful to me in updating some of the subtleties current=y involved in your Dad's campaign. I also appreciated the clarity yo= were able to provide on some of the key issues going on in the Maldives r=ght now and the latest updates on Nasheed's actions.
