(I tried to send an email about an hour ago but I don't think it went out as I'm at a conference in Canada without my laptop so retyping it, apologies as in duplicate)

Rich and I spoke and as much as I am reluctant to speak for him I will attempt to summarize our discussion in the interest of moving things forward:

- the company has turned the corner and will be in a position following the L=S settlement to resume debt servicing in the fourth quarter and/or to refinance my debt with convertible debt both of which would inure to your benefit
- I am expecting to raise my salary back to its previous level which would allow me to allocate some of my additional income to paying down my debt
- In the interest of immediately demonstrating my commitment to making good on my obligation to you I could begin making small payments (hundreds of dollars), I don't have much right now
- I would like to have the lien removed today so that I can live and eat and=pay rent this weekend
