Do more, right from your inbox

Skype for Outlook.com lets you chat and make free calls, without ever leaving your inbox. So you can make plans, answer questions, or have a quick face-to-face, all in one place.

Ways to find your friends

Click the Skype icon <https://asgcdn.azureedge.net/2016-05-ol-outlook-skype-onboarding-et/images/en-us/skype_icon_double.png> in the top right of your inbox, then:

<https://asgcdn.azureedge.net/2016-05-ol-outlook-skype-onboarding-et/images/en-us/skype_outlook_onboarding_thumbnail_double.jpg>

<https://asgcdn.azureedge.net/2016-05-ol-outlook-skype-onboarding-et/images/en-us/skype_outlook_onboarding_bullet1_double.png> Already have a Skype account? Link it to your Outlook.com email and your Skype contacts will be right there.

<https://asgcdn.azureedge.net/2016-05-ol-outlook-skype-onboarding-et/images/en-us/skype_outlook_onboarding_bullet2_double.png> New to Skype? your Outlook.com email address is your Skype ID.

<https://asgcdn.azureedge.net/2016-05-ol-outlook-skype-onboarding-et/images/en-us/skype_outlook_onboarding_bullet3_double.png> Search for friends in Skype by name or email address, then click "Add to contacts". You will also be searchable in the directory.

Did you know?

You can talk with friends who don't have Skype by sending them a link. When it's time for the call, they just click the link and are directed to a Skype web page to join in.
