I spoke to =inda about his business etc. She told me a little anecdote of =hat happened last night that will put this all in perspective. =arren was sleeping upstairs because of his coughing. At 4 am, she =eard a noise and went upstairs. Warren was dressed and brushing =is teeth. She asked, what are you doing? He said he was =etting ready to go to work...

His =ondition is declining fast. I'm going to go see him =omorrow after work. Seems like his fight is all =ut over.
