Jeffrey:

I opened up the Times today and saw a piece about you and your friend=the Prince; so I thought I'd drop you a line to see how everything is goi=g. I hope all of the civil cases are well finished by now and that=you are back on track occupying your time with exciting and productive th=ngs. These past couple of years you have to deal with horrible gove=nment agencies and folks who appear to be nothing less than extortionists=posing as victims and that has to have been terrible. I hope there=are nothing but good times now and ahead. Take care, David Sc=oen
