Guys

I am no longer comfortable with the frontier position. Price =ction after the dividend cut was disappointing and the new secured bond =hat they will likely issue will not help us. We are now down a total =.1% on the position and I think the bond can drop another 5-10 points. =e have revised our EBITDA estimates and they don't look great. =herefore I recommend that we sell at 96.00 or better.
