Verbally I was told that Arthur Klein's office will not handle this. Told to speak with Tewari directly. Tewari's administrator said that Klein's office didn't want to handle the expenses as they previously agreed. Tewari's admin said we should consider no contract, but consider private practice at Sinai.

You are correct. I changed the contract to include your suggestion (attached). Arthur Klein offered to pay the expenses upfront so that I can pay them and avoid Sinai getting involved. He recommended it and I like the idea.

Take a look at the contract with my revisions. Let me know what y=u think before I send it back.

As always,
