Yes, I enjoyed it very much. Thank you!

Unrelated: The lawyers have offered to handle our green card case for a fee of ~10000 dollars, plus ~5700 dollars for the government filing fees. The documentation is largely the same as for the O1 visa, including the letters of reference (which I already requested in two versions each). Thus, the actual effort to compile the documents is going to be minimal.

Is it better to handle the green card via the lawyers, or would it be possible/better to do that via Darren?

With kind regards!

Joscha
