Good day all,

At this point in time t=ere's 2 hold ups. We lost fiber connection to five palms which became my ma= point due to the tower change in height. The second is again the tower be=ng so low I'm having a hard time getting it aligned to get full bandwidth. I=m scheduled to be working on that again on Saturday and Monday.

=div>As soon as we get the fiber transceivers back and get five palms back u= I can continue the alignment on the LSJ. There's no way I can give a compl=tion date it all depends on these contingencies. Everything is ready to go j=st ran into these issues.

Regards,

Terrence Rabsatt
