Dear Friends and Neighbors,

One of my promises was to end the bad convention center deal of 2013 and create a new, better deal for residents and taxpayers, and our entire City.

We're now one step away from realizing the much anticipated renovation of our Convention Center, and we have done it the right way.

We've implemented a transparent process, that benefits the residents instead of a developer, within a realistic and affordable budget, on a realistic timetable for project completion, and preserves the property in the hands of the people with a brand new public park for much desired green space.

We are renovating our Convention Center ourselves, maintaining ownership of these 52 precious acres and creating something that's more in line with our neighborhood and the quality of life for Miami Beach residents.

This is the type of leadership I promised to deliver to the residents of Miami Beach.

We have much more to accomplish in the future, and with your vote in this election, together we will Just Get It Done!
