Subject: NYC visit; The Economist's recent coverage on 3-D printing (a manufacturing technology); Koz

I'll probably be in NYC the week of April 11-15. Are you planning to be in the city then? I'd love to see you.

I encourage you to read the Economist's recent coverage of 3-D printing. It's an interesting area to me and I'd be happy to discuss it with you. I've used 3-D printed parts in rapid prototyping for nimble product development.

How's Kosslyn doing at Stanford? I've not crossed paths with him or his sons recently.

Cheers,
David
