Dear Jeffrey,

You have generously supported my research the last few years. The most recent $100K you donated two years ago was supremely useful:=because of the lack of restrictions on the gift, I was able to support visitors, students, and activities that can't be supported by government grants.

I'm writing to see if you are=interested in continuing the support. If you could support the research, that would be great.

In addition to loo=ing for research support, I'm also looking for ways to support a sabbatical for the academic year 2017-2018 (MIT only pays half my salary for the year).

We have also talked about me che=king out MIT's willingness to accept additional donations from you: wo=ld you like me to ask around?

Once again, thank y=u so much for your support: as noted, it is exceptionally effective, and i= means a lot to me. Please give me a ring if you l=;d like to discuss this: [REDACTED] <tel:[REDACTED]>

I hope =hat you are well and that our paths cross soon. Any plans to=show up in Cambridge? The last time was very fun.</=iv>

Yours,
Seth
