Registration for the 2017 Wolfram Technology Conference is now live.

The conference will take place October 17-20 at the Hilton Garden Inn near Wolfram Research headquarters in Champaign, Illinois. Be sure not to miss Stephen Wolfram's keynote talk on Tuesday, October 17 from 5pm-7pm, followed by the opening reception.

You will:
Interact with the developers who created the Wolfram technologies you use every day Network with peers Discover new technologies Experience hands-on training Share your knowledge with others Be inspired

The week promises to be filled with learning opportunities about the latest and greatest updates to Wolfram technologies and key features, including neural networks, expanded machine learning, image and signal processing, data science and more.

We want to hear from you, our product users and experts. If you are interested in submitting a presentation, please see: http://url.wolfram.com/61URpmU/

We're looking forward to seeing you in October!

Don't miss your chance to attend--register now: http://url.wolfram.com/52K87PK/
