Hi Steve,

I am still intrigued and w=uld like to meet Michael. I thinks it makes sense, though, for us to h=ve a more specific conversation about compensation before I meet with him. &=bsp;I don't want to put the cart before the horse, but as I mentioned, this=would be a big move for me, and it would have to make sense economically in=addition to being the right move for other reasons we have discussed.

I hope you are well. Cannot believe that C=ristie endorsed Trump!

Best,

Kathy

I don't want to pester you, but in the hope=that you are still intrigued, I wanted to suggest that we try to set up an o=portunity for you to meet Michael Davison, our global head of litigation. &=bsp; Mlchael is an International Arbitration specialist based in Londo= and a key player. He is also a lot of fun, notwithstanding his=Scottish upbringing.

Let me know.=br>

Best,
