Spoke to Neil today, TCAS box will be arrive Thursday morning, should be ready by 1pm Thursday afternoon,,

Regarding avionics upgrade, Neil spoke with Garmin, they are very interested in installing Garmin5000 touch screen glass cockpit in 727., The US military is installing the Garmin5000 into their C130 transport aircraft,, Also Cessna is installing the Garmin package in their new generation jets.

Fusion parts alone cost $1.4M compared to the Garmin package that would cost $500k Neil is looking into both options for us with DAR and FAA,, Neil sounded very excited about Garmin's interest plus offering a 10% discount from Garmin,

Thx
Larry
