Excellent article !
Congratulations !!!!
Looking forward to our meeting
I disagree with Neil De Grasse Tyson
Science is not " truth " ! </=iv>
It's a method of human inquiry that yields t=stable results that are useful for creating technology and even help cure = small percentage of chronic illnesses .
The only " truth " if any is the c=nsciousness in which science is a particular system of thought. No system =f thought - science philosophy , theology or religion gives us access to r=ality or truth . Only going to the source of thought itself can we get a clue to the nature of existence .
Science cannot teach me to love , have compa=sion , joy , equanimity or show me the meaning or why of existence .
=/div> I'm conversing / debating Shermer again in l=st week of September in NYC . Tyson etc will be there . Would love to have=you join .
Love
