The month of June offers the opportunity for us to celebrate the father in our lives. I, too, consider this, but through a deeply personal lens. For me, June also marks the passing of the love of my life, my husband, Stephan Weiss.

Stephan was an extraordinary father and grandfather and losing him to lung cancer eleven years ago has left an absence within our family; we all loved him unconditionally and cherish our memories. In celebration of Stephan as a wonderful father figure, our children and grandchildren have shared some of their favorite stories and precious memories; I invite you to read them here <<http://urbanzen.us1.list-manage.com/track/click?u=a0a658b344c825ecf28ade459&id=39ccf782e5&e=813203595a>> .
