Hi all,

All flights to and from Miami are cancelled until Friday due to Bad weather a=d traffic control. I'm still in the airport trying to find flights from Tam=a to another state or book new flights on another airline

I tried at 1:05am to get on a earlier flight this morning but they were all b=oked. I kept my original flight and that ended up getting canceled. My girl= have exams in the morning so I desperately need to get back home. I'll kee= you guys posted...
