"Sorry for not answering fast and bein= a bit busy this evening. Regarding money for the job that I did they will p=y me in cash next week they said. Or if I prefer they can do a bank transfe=

And I have been thinking a lot now back and forth=of what I should do and how I should spend my time here most effectively. A=ways trying to be as helpful as I can to you and Jeff but also focus on my c=reer now

"Since I have to leave the=states around 25th-26th April to go to Milan for work plus appointments wit= here from next weekend a shooting with a good photographer from here to de=velop my book and also another job the booker have been talking about that I=might get and also castings and clients that they really want me to meet ma=es me think I should spend as much time here in Miami as possible. I just g=t signed and booked the first casting and already worked. It seems like the= really believe in me and that they like me so I think I should show them t=at I am serious aswell and stay here as much as possible until I have to go=back to Europe. So doing both island + Ny is gonna be a lot of time away fr=m here and I think right now my focus should be here on castings and work! D= you understand how I am thinking? I have a place in NY where I can stay"

All the best [REDACTED]
