Dear friends,

I hope this note finds you happy and well and enjoying your weekend. I am s=arting the second phase of my community service project it's some thing th=t runs deep in my families roots, helping those less fortunate. While I pe=sonally have prepared food for the homeless many times, raising 18k (with the help of my brother and sist=r) for the devastation in Haiti or trading in a birthday party and all the=fan fare to instead invite the entire grade from school to a day of servic=. While doing these wonderful projects I learned so much I have decided to take on a challenge I hope you all can=help me with. It's a simple request instead of throwing away your tennis r=cquet's I am asking you to donate them to me. You are wondering what I am =oing to do with your old used racquet's? I have been collecting racquets for inner city children, children who woul= never have the opportunity afforded to me. I am working with jtcc (a 501c=)where I played last summer, I played with some of the best kids in the co=ntry some who you will see in the coming years at the 4 major tournaments in the world. These children have =een the recipient of jtcc wonderful outreach. Last summer's experience mot=vated me to choose my project. We will start a tennis tournament that I wi=l organize and run this summer, you will be hearing more about that in the coming months.

All I ask is when your cleaning out your closet(my mom said I was helping h=r to spring clean) if you could put aside your old racquet's, i [REDACTED] you can drop them off at the school where I will be =eaving a box in the lobby of the high school. If you don't go to [REDACTED] ask if you can drop them to my =ome at 340 east 72nd street, or I can pick them up from your home if you r=ply to this email. The kids I met last summer and the new ones I will dona=e these racquet's to will be forever grateful.

I promise to send you pictures through out my journey.
Thanking you in advance for your generosity.
