Subject: Greg Brown's Weekend Reading and Other Things.. 07/30/2017 DELAYED

Friends....

For the first time in more than eight years I missed a Sunday Weekend Readings deadline, so before alarms go out about my premature demise please understand that I am currently in North Africa and the Internet and Wifi service is Third World and spotty at best and the moment I get to reliable telecommunications I will send yesterday's Weekend Readings out....

Again.... Sorry for the delay....

Sincerely,
GB
