

---

From: Marc Pro [REDACTED]
Sent: Monday, August 3, 2015 5:16 AM
To: jeevacation@gmail.com
Subject: Bin Ennakhil

Dear Jeffrey,

I hate =ailing. You probably too and still have an eye on Bin =nnakhil.

I went for this reasons to =arbella and had a long talk with Mr. Kiss.

- =/span>He is aware about the enormous qualities and =are defaults of his property.
- =/span>He knows how much he invested and that it would =e impossible to redo today such a palace with 14 m high ceilings and =ll this handcrafts for less than 40 million, or may be =ore.
- =/span>He has no money need.

But

- =/span>The two last written offers didn't =ucceed. One was canceled for economic reasons by the potential buyer, =he second was denied by Mr. Kiss and his bank.
- =/span>Mr. Kiss does not want to spend time in Morocco =o supervise the renovation and other constructions in his =property.
- =/span>You are the first real art lover who has the =ight feeling for this palace.

For all =hese reasons, I got the authorization to reduce the price at 40 million =et for Mr. Kiss.

We decided =lso to start a new advertising campaign in September, at the unchanged =rice of 55 million.

Regards

Marc =EON

KENSINGTON

Av=nue Yacoub El Mansour

