MICHAEL GRIECO & JOY MALAKOFF

Major Endorsement Strengthens Momentum for Positive Change =n Miami Beach

Miami Beach, Florida - Today, Mayor-elect Philip Levine endorsed Michael Grieco and Joy Malakoff for Miami Beach City Commission in Groups 2 and 3, respectively.

"Michael Grieco is exactly the type of leader that Miami Beach needs to serve on the City Commission. Michael's years of civic activism and community involvement have placed him in a unique position to serve the needs of Miami Beach residents," commented Mayor-elect Levine.

Mayor-elect Levine also stated, "For decades, Joy Malakoff has been a pillar of our community. Whether it has been as Community Bank Executive, or as a member of the Historic Preservation Board, the Planning Board, or most recently the Board of Adjustment, Joy has been a lifelong servant for our city. I would be honored to serve with Joy; her record of accomplishment and her achievements are second to none. Our community needs new leadership and Joy provides it."

In a joint statement, Grieco and Malakoff stated, "We appreciate Mayor-elect Levine's endorsement in the pivotal runoff election. Last week Miami Beach voters expressed a clear mandate for positive change, and we are ready to work with Mayor-elect Levine to solve the flooding crisis, enhance public safety, and put an end to corruption in City Hall."

Early voting will be held on Saturday, November 16th, and Sunday, November 17th, at Miami Beach City Hall (1700 Convention Center Drive) and the North Shore Public Library (7501 Collins Avenue). Both locations are open from 9am-7pm.

Runoff Election Day is Tuesday, November 19th. The polls are open from 7am-7pm.
