I hate bothering you but I need to keep you updated.<=div>

I am hysterical, DHL in Cape Town picked up my document= and shipped them the fastest way to World Education Services(WES) in NEW =ORK. They gave me a tracking number and the name of the person who signed =or the documents at WES. WES says the tracking number is illegitimate and =hey were never received.

I need them for my OPT to go t=rough and to graduate. They had transferred my credits from the original t=anscripts I gave them and only now before graduation are they telling me t=ey need it to go through WES

South African Univer=ities seem to be the only ones that wont ship them to WES. You always need=an external party. My family is unable to help because the documents are r=quired to arrive in stamped sealed envelope directly from the university. =his is not the first time this has happened and I freak out because I know=in south Africa things like this are stolen all the time. (There are proba=ly already 2 dark greens from a township called [REDACTED] with a Bache=ors degree from Stel.)

Only thing now is to conta=t Stellenbosch, DHL in SOuth Africa tomorrow.

Contact WES again =nd DHL in the US today.

Go up the chain at Parsons from academic=advisor - director - dean to ask for help and that when they do arrive the= are processed immediately.

The amount of nonsens= I have gone through with this whole process, it breaks my heart, I have w=rked harder than any student in that school and given up my life to do wel=, and now it can just be taken away beacuse of the inefficiency of the stu=id country from which I come. they have to let me graduate but the issue i= the time and the opt. Graduation they can always push to 2018 but then I =ont get OPT.

I hate to bother you but I need to k=ep you posted. I will do everything I can to make it work.
