Subject: hi..

hi.. =een a busy and productive week here in Phx.. I head home tomorrow for a =ay and then am back for another week.

One =ureaucratic hassle. Apparently the University automatically =cknowledges people who gift gifts in excess of a million by making =hem members of something called the Leadership =ociety.. and they put their names up on some wall etc. The =nbsp;automatic system has kicked in with Debra and Leon =lack. Is this ok? If not, we have to find a way of saying =hat the Blacks are not interested..

See you =oon, with Noam! Our extinctions workshop was incredibly =nteresting.
