It's not easy for institutional investors to find high yield and income in today's low-rate financial environment. But there are strategies for increasing risk-adjusted returns for investors willing to look beyond the traditional asset classes on a global basis. Non-investment grade debt, emerging market debt and equities, real estate and infrastructure are among the asset classes with the potential to increase a portfolio's performance, according to professionals from J. P. Morgan Asset Management.

This important new eBook contains interviews and video commentaries from specialists in investing in non-traditional assets. And the eBook gives readers access to J. P. Morgan Asset Management's new guide In Search of Yield & Income: Eight Key Considerations.

Table of Contents

- * Improving Returns in Today's Environment
- * Global Opportunities
- * Income and Inflation-Protection Strategies
