Jeffrey,

I assume that you were smart enough to be out of harms way, so my concern on the double whammy that you get in the Caribbean and in Florida is only a monetary loss and a hassle.

Over the weekend I tried to think of some way I could, as a volunteer, be of help to you, however, I could not come up with a credible proposal. If you know of any way I could be of assistance to you in this mess, don't hesitate to ask an old friend.
