Great!

> ////////// On another note. I think it now time as you are =ettled and secure to hone your presentation skills. if you dont , =his will greatly hold you back and more importantly will cloud your =ery insightful ideas from taking root. . I think, what do you =hink " what do you think , not once when talking to either =arving or chomsky, ask them to help correct your thinking, ask =hem if you understand correctly what they just said, you need to =stablish a feedback loop with them. you talk , watch their =eaction and respond with a modulation. . if you cant pick up the =ues, ask the question as you talked about your true or false right =r wrong. you ask yourself the question . verbalize a simlar query =nd ask them if they agree, understand want to comment. . lecturing =homsky minsky or a group is against your interests. digest what they =ay first. beofre spitting out your old ideas.

Thank you; you are right, of course, and I appreciate your advice very =uch!

Bests,
