Jeffrey for now with no degree I can only get internships in good companies thanks to my contacts in order to earn, not real jobs. Everyone I ask for a paid job tell me I need to finish my degree, except for you (you don't want to hire me as well or help me find one) ! All the internships/jobs good or bad I did since now I've always found them alone by myself. After asking everyone I know for a "real" paid job as you said the only options I have without a degree are: waitress, cleaner, babysitter or sales girl. I can't find any useful skills I can learn in those jobs that I haven't already learned before like being on time, humility and respect and no growth in a specific field of my interest. The only thing I see myself in is in the Art industry but you don't consider it as a "real job" . I find myself completely trapped in a situation where I can't find a way out and don't see a future... Sorry if I'm writing you this but I'm panicking

I'm sure you might think that photography is not a real job but it can turn into one if I do it well. At the beginning I will earn no money with it since I have to learn and I will probably need to work in a shop or something to earn some money. My question is how do I learn by assisting a photographer if I work in a shop all day ?? How can I earn money to pay my rent and living and in the same time learn a new skill in order to grow in that specific field ? I'm not sure how I should manage this...
