Friends --

Martin Luther King, Jr. said that "the time is always right to do what is right.";

Today, here in Florida, it's time to do what is right. =/div>

It's time to address climate change by changing Tallahassee's climate of denial.=/span>

It's time to restore the power back to the local level, where people live, instead of conceding more control over our lives to Tallahassee, where politicians live.

It's time to make a day's pay enough to avoid a lifetime of dread, fearing that one event, one illness, one bad break could break an entire family.

It's time to acknowledge that unless we put our teachers and our public schools first, we have no right to say we're putting children first. We're not.

Finally, it's long past time to say we've had enough of the political bickering and posturing, enough of the calculated words of hate, enough of those who would tear us down and tear us apart just to score a political point.

They've had their turn. Today belongs to us.

And so today, inspired by the heroism of those who dreamed big and achieved big, I am announcing my candidacy for Governor of Florida.

Because, like Dr. King, I believe it's time to do the right thing. And our journey begins today, right now.

Sincerely,
Philip Levine=span>
