I just want to clarify something. When we visit the White House it will just be Woody and myself and Edward and Elizabeth if they gave you their password information. They were giving it to you separately from us. I don't know why. Manzie and the au pair, Melina, will not be with us. As it turns out, we are only going to be in Washington DC the day of December, 26 so would it be possible to visit the White House on that day at around 3 o'clock? Sorry for having to be so specific.
