Hi Jeffrey,

Below is a list of guest speakers that NeuroTV would like to have on their show. Could we assist with this? Bigger names on their episodes will increase viewership. I= so, I can get the contact information from Lesley and reach out to them.<=div>

Thanks for letting me know,

Dear [REDACTED],

</=iv>

As we have discussed, I am sending you a list of potential speaker= who would definitely have an impact and who could lead to very interestin= discussions on NEURO.tv.

Robert Trivers
Noam Chomsky
Daniel Dennett
Richard Dawkins
Steven Pinker
Jonathan Haidt
Sam Harris

Each of these sp=akers require specific content, but in general I would like to talk with t=em about the origins of life, the place of human culture in evolution and =he question of whether moral truth exists. I am also open to the suggestio=s you mentioned, so feel free to send me your own list and we can go from =here!

Best,

I'm ahead of schedule so I should be there at 2 pm, but take your time if you still want to come at 3.

Dear [REDACTED],

I'll see you tomorrow at the Corrado Café at 1280 Lexington Avenue. Here is our 2014 report for Season 1, to which I added an update on our current progress on Season 2 at the end of the document.

Best,
