
From: Larry Visoski [REDACTED]
Sent: Tuesday, March 18, 2014 7:31 PM
To: Je vacation
Subject: Outflow sensor
Attachments: photo.JPG; Untitled attachment 00169.txt

Jeffrey

I think I solved what the sensor in middle of our outflow valve is: appears to be a proximity sensor in outflow valve which works with our Security system=on the GIV., Securaplane System.

There are proximity sensors in wheel wells and outflow valve in case someone=tries to place something in accessible openings on the aircraft.

We have this system on the Boeing also, no one utilizes these systems anymore due to false warnings .