Jeffrey, I don't have the define answer yet. I spoke with few people who could potently accept the donation. Only one said he knows some one who might be able to do it. The person who has a foundation suppose to be at the tournament but had a family emergency and could not come.

I'm not sure if it will be easy to find a charity, I suspect they know about my situation, so it might be the reason why it is slow to get an answer.

The player who wants to help me ask me to send him grant proposal and said that he will get back to me.

 I hope I can find charity but probably not this year. I will keep you posted.
