Jeffrey.....

Fadi says that Paris is not the r=ght venue for this. He and Fadel Hshad (personal adviser to the P=esident of the TNC) have already informed the right people and they=have agreed to work with us. He feels that to seek meetings in Paris (and become part of the pack) would disrupt what has been accompli=hed. He asked for both of us to be patient, because the mandates=are already in the works, and no other sales pitches are needed. Es=ecially since the leadership of the TNC have more pressing priorities ri=ht now: forming a new and epanded government, moving & settling in =ew offices in Tripoli, getting water, medical supplies, fuel, power, food,=A0 security, civil needs in place.

With this said, lets all speak tomorrow (via conf-call= to map out a stategy and timeline.

Sincerely,</=iv>
