Jeffrey,
Flight went perfect today, 3 fuel stops and 7 hours flight time into a 10kt head wind, we averaged 150kts ground speed. I have a meeting with the st. Thomas engineer regarding the hanger construction at 10am tomorrow, our flight to Newark departs at 1240pm, we land at 5pm. I can call you when we land, or depart Sunday morning is fine we me, according to Sarah if you like,.
Thanks,
Larry
