Hi Jeffrey,

Here's the latest update.

I rented another apartment this week. :)

Also, Estee Lauder emailed me to set up another interview with HR. I am not sure for what position.

I am working a lot (6 days, 12h a day this week) and need to take a break. The only fun is hanging out with Henry and his friend.

Henry has been a great friend and very supportive.

I really like what I am doing now but I have hard time picturing doing it long term.

Long term, I see myself managing a property or a business and I think I would be very good at it. I would really enjoy it.

One thing is clear, I am determined to do really well no matter what I specialize in.

I could see that happening, because I tend to grasp things quickly and my standards for performance are much higher than most people expect. So far I am number one among the people who started with me or after (about 10) in terms of gross revenue.

Anyway, I would love to catch up and spend some time with you when you can. Both for fun (I miss you!) and for advice. I can come to you or wait until you are in nyc. Just let me know what works for you.

Big Kiss!

Hi Jeffrey,

When would you like to see each other? I can stop by anytime with a little notice this or next week.
